Improving Our Response to Older Adults with Substance Use, Mental Health and Gambling Problems

A Guide for Supervisors, Managers and Clinical Staff

The CAMH Healthy Aging Project, Foreword by Benoit Mulsant

188 pages • paperback • published 2008 • ISBN 978-0-88868-677-0 • product code PM080 • $29.95

Improving Our Response provides the information, tools and guidance that service providers need to work more effectively with older adults who may have substance use, mental health or gambling problems.

This comprehensive resource includes:

- an overview of alcohol use, anxiety, bipolar disorder, depression, schizophrenia, tobacco use and other problems as they appear in older adults
- a selection of screening tools that can be used to help identify problems
- practical guidance on building a relationship, adopting a holistic approach and advocacy for older adults
- an introduction to the recovery, harm reduction and

- stages of change models as guiding principles of care
- ways to guide and support staff, families and others who care for older adults with these problems
- information on referring to specialized addiction and mental health treatment services
- case studies and practical strategies for complex situations
- information sheets for older adults and their families on substance use, mental health and gambling.

This guide is for professionals who work with older adults, including nurses, social workers, occupational therapists, physiotherapists, educators and management staff in community support services, retirement and long-term care homes. The guide is also a useful resource for mental health and addiction treatment providers.

Responding to Older Adults with Substance Use, Mental Health and Gambling Challenges

A Guide for Workers and Volunteers

The CAMH Healthy Aging Project

Bonus!

Up to 5 copies of Responding to Older Adults (English or French) may be ordered at no cost with each purchase of Improving Our Response

English: 52 pages • paperback • published 2006 • ISBN 0-88868-486-X • product code PM045 • $4.95
